Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions.

Traveling around the world is an exciting way to experience different cultures, cuisines, and landscapes. Whether you're visiting a bustling city or relaxing on a quiet beach, travel offers an opportunity to learn about history, art, and the natural world. In addition to the fun and excitement, traveling also helps you grow as a person. You meet new people, try new things, and step out of your comfort zone. Many people find that traveling can be life-changing.

Some people prefer traveling to famous tourist destinations, such as Paris, New York, or Tokyo. These cities are full of landmarks, museums, and activities that attract millions of tourists each year. Others tourists enjoy exploring less-known places, where they can find peace and quiet away from the crowds. Whether you travel alone, with friends, or with family, each journey brings unique memories.

While traveling can be fun, it's also necessary to be responsible. Respect the environment by keeping places clean and not damaging nature. Moreover, try to be aware of local customs and traditions. Being respectful to the culture of the places you visit will make your experience more enjoyable and meaningful.
