Ninh Binh is well-known for its natural beauty and historical significance, making it a must-visit destination in Vietnam. One of the most famous attractions is the Trang An Landscape Complex - a UNESCO World Heritage site with its wonderful caves, majestic mountains, and winding rivers.

Another remarkable spot is Tam Coc - Bich Dong, often considered as "Ha Long Bay on land". This picturesque region features towering limestone mountains that rise dramatically from lush rice fields. A boat trip along the tranquil river offers visitors stunning views and a unique perspective of the area's natural wonders.

Cuc Phuong National Park, the first national park in Vietnam, is another highlight of Ninh Binh. The park provides opportunities for trekking through its rich forests. Visitors can also explore the Endangered Primate Rescue Center, which is dedicated to the conservation of endangered species.

In recent years, Ninh Binh has seen significant growth in tourism. The local government is actively promoting the region as an eco-tourism destination, hoping to attract even more tourists to experience the beauty and cultural heritage of Ninh Binh.
