Since the end of the Second World War, technology has advanced rapidly. These advances in agriculture, transportation and industry have improved our way of life. Unfortunately, they have also damaged our environment.

The most obvious example of a useful technological advance is, of course, the car. Cars have changed the way we live and added to our convenience and comfort. They do, however, pollute the atmosphere. Steps are finally being taken to reduce the pollutants produced by cars. Now lead is being eliminated from gasoline and catalytic converters are installed in modern cars to remove pollutants produced by the engine.

Another example of a common product of modern technology that contributes to environmental pollution is plastics. Plastics cause pollution when they are manufactured because a great deal of electricity is needed in their production. They are also difficult to dispose of because they will not break down and cannot be absorbed by the soil.

14. According to the passage, technological advances are not found in _____.

- A. industry
- B. transportation
- C. agriculture
- D. environment

15. What is NOT a benefit of modern technology?

- A. It has polluted our environment.
- B. It has made our life comfortable.
- C. It has improved our life.
- D. It has brought convenience.

16. How many examples of modern technology are there in the text?

- A. 1
- B. 2
- C. 3
- D. 4

17. What does the word They in paragraph 3 refer to?

- A. problems
- B. cars
- C. plastics
- D. advances

18. What is the best title for the passage?

- A. Types of pollution
- B. Benefits of modern technology
- C. Technological advances
- D. Modern technology and its harmful effects

Part 3. Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions. (Đọc đoạn văn sau và chọn phương án A, B, C hoặc D để xác định đáp án phù hợp nhất cho mỗi câu hỏi sau) (1,25 points)

Healthy living is crucial for teenagers as it helps them grow, develop and stay healthy for their lifetime. A balanced diet is the foundation of healthy living.

whole grains, and lean proteins while avoiding too much junk food and sugary drinks. Regular physical activity is equally important, with at least 60 minutes of exercise recommended daily. This can include anything from sports like basketball or soccer to simple activities like walking or cycling.

In addition to diet and exercise, sleep plays a key role in maintaining health. Teenagers need about 8 to 10 hours of sleep each night to support their physical and mental growth. Lack of sleep can lead to poor concentration, irritability, and an increased risk of illness. Managing stress is another important factor. With the pressure of school, friends, and social media, teens may feel overwhelmed. Practising mindfulness, taking breaks, and talking to someone they trust can help them manage stress more effectively.

By adopting these healthy habits - eating well, staying active, sleeping enough, and managing stress - teens can improve their overall well-being and set the stage for a healthy adult life.

19. What is the main idea of the passage?
- Teenagers need to exercise for 60 minutes every day.
  - Teens should avoid stress and eat only fruits and vegetables.
  - Physical activity is more important than sleep for teenagers.
  - Healthy living includes balanced nutrition, exercise, sleep, and stress management for teens.

22. Which of the following is NOT TRUE according to the passage?
- Teens should eat a balanced diet that includes fruits and vegetables.
  - Teenagers need around 8 to 10 hours of sleep every night.
  - Teens should avoid junk food and sugary drinks.
  - Stress has no impact on the health of teenagers.
23. From the passage, it can be inferred that ____.
- Teens don't need to manage stress if they sleep well
  - Teenagers need more than 10 hours of sleep every night
  - Lack of sleep can negatively affect a teenager's mood and health
  - Teens can stay healthy by only exercising
