ROLES OF TECHNOLOGY IN THE FUTURE

In the future, we'll be doing lots of things with the help of technology. Now, we drive our cars to work. But in 20 years, we will be travelling to different places in our self-driving cars. At present, we use smartphones to communicate with our families and friends. Communication will be more convenient in the future because we will be wearing digital watches around wrists to make phone calls. The way we watch movies will be different in the future, too. We'll be watching films on smart walls, and these special walls will replace computers. Our free time activities will also change. Nowadays, we play online games but we will be playing virtual reality games in 20 years. We use digital cameras to take pictures today, but in the future, we will be taking pictures using drones. These are small planes that can be controlled from the ground.

(Adapted from i-Learn Smart World - Workbook)
